

INTEGRATED CAPTURE FISHERIES WITH ITS PROCESSING Maluku Province

"Awarded with an ocean area that reaches 92% of the total area. From the east side of the equator, this is Maluku, the province with the highest capture fisheries production in Indonesia."

Market Conditions

Indonesia's export trend for tuna fillet and canned tuna products in the 2017-2021 period experienced an average increase of 22.51% and 1.38%, with the province of Maluku contributing 16.45% of total production.

Infrastructure

Raw Water
3 Sources of Raw Water
Availability: 5,46 m³/second
Needs: 1,28 L/second
Distance: 3-4 km

Electricity
3 pembangkit listrik yang berada di sekitar Tulehu
Availability: 110 MW
Needs: 788 kWh

Road
arterial road
1,6 km; ROW +8-10 m
asphalt pavement
Collector Street
97 m; ROW 15 m
asphalt pavement

Airport
Pattimura Ambon International Airport
Distance: 37,5 km

Port
Waai Logistics Port
Distance: 7 km
Ikan Tulehu Port
Distance: 2,1 km

Labor Force

- The labor force during the operational period is 476 people.
- The 2022 minimum wage is Rp. 2,618,312.

Investment Value:
Rp 549,62 billion

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

PRODUCTION TARGET

KBLI
(Business Classification Registry)

Project Location

Salahutu District,
Central Maluku Regency,
Maluku Province

Area Land

Community-owned land.
Estimasi harga beli
Rp 500.000 m².

